

Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development

Healthcare Workforce Development Division

Consumer and Family Member Employment Support and Development Activities

In preparation for the May 21, 2014 Committee meeting OSHPD compiled the feedback received during the April 3, 2014 WET Consumer and Family Member Employment Advisory Committee (Committee). Below you will find a list of the support and development activities divided into two categories; peer support and organizational development.

During the May 21, 2014 Committee meeting OSHPD will be asking committee members several questions for each support and development activity. Please review the questions found in the table below and be prepared to discuss them during the meeting.

Support and Development (Peer Support)	Are there any activities that should be done before others?	What is currently happening? Is it working? Why or why not?	What can be done to improve/enhance it?
a. Activities that provide peer support
b. Retention activities for consumers, family members, parents/caregivers
c. Development of new and the promotion of current resources that aim to increase consumer, family, parent/caregiver member employment
d. Creating learning collaborative
e. Financial assistance for consumers, family members, parents/caregivers attending education and training programs
f. Develop online trainings for peers
g. Developing a career track/ladder for consumer, family members, parents/caregivers

Support and Development (Organizational Development)	Are there any activities that should be done before others	What is currently being done? Is it working? Why or why not?	What can be done to improve/enhance it?
a. Organizational development (training and supporting organization that want to hire peers)
b. Training and supporting County/CBO leadership, supervisors, management, staff, and education partners on elements that are needed to expand consumer, family member, parent/caregiver employment
c. Peer run training for employers, HR, etc.
d. Gathering and disseminating best practices for consumer, family member, parents/caregivers employment activities
e. Creating learning collaborative			